Crete, the biggest island of Greece is the crossroad between three continents. The island with important history and invaluable archaeological findings is divided in 4 districts, each one with its own history. The district of Heraklion is in the middle of the island offering a lot of sights, such as the ancient city of Knossos and the museum of Heraklion with archaeological treasures, cosmopolitan villages but also villages for a quiet and enjoyable vacation, where someone can admire nature in its greatness.

Almare Beach is situated in the village of Kokkini Hani, just 12 km east of the capital Heraklion.
